

7th/8th Grade Summer Reading Book of Choice
Assignment

The assignment for the summer book of choice is done in class the first day of school of the 2007-2008 school year. Students need to bring their books to class and will be expected to write a five paragraph essay over one of the questions listed below.

FICTION options:

1. Describe the main character.

Paragraph one should be your introduction
Paragraph two should discuss one aspect of your character
Paragraph three should discuss another aspect of your character
Paragraph four should discuss the last aspect of your character
Paragraph five should be your conclusion

2. If there was one thing in the book that you would change what would it be and why.

Paragraph one should be your introduction
Paragraph two should discuss what you would change
Paragraph three should discuss how you would change the event
Paragraph four should why you would make this change
Paragraph five should be your conclusion

3. What is the overall theme of the book?

Paragraph one should be your introduction
Paragraph two should discuss the theme
Paragraph three should discuss how you know this is the theme
Paragraph four should discuss what you learned from the theme or book
Paragraph five should be your conclusion

NONFICTION options:

4. Describe the main character.

Paragraph one should be your introduction

Paragraph two should discuss one aspect of your character

Paragraph three should discuss another aspect of your character

Paragraph four should discuss the last aspect of your character

Paragraph five should be your conclusion

5. Describe an important event in the book.

Paragraph one should be your introduction

Paragraph two should discuss the event

Paragraph three should discuss the importance of the event

Paragraph four should discuss what you learned from the event

Paragraph five should be your conclusion