Discovering a Theology of Technology

Dr. John Dyer serves as the Dean of Enrollment Services and Distance Education and an Adjunct Professor in Media Arts and Worship at Dallas Theological Seminary where he earned his Master of Theology degree. John is also a graduate of Texas A&M University as well as Durham University where he earned his doctorate. He has a background in technology working as a coder and speaks often to groups to help them reflect carefully on technology from a biblical perspective. John is the author of From the Garden to the City: The Redeeming and Corrupting Power of Technology.

THE FUTURE OF WORK-PANEL DISCUSSION

- What does it mean for man to "work" — is work fundamental for humanity?
- Robotics and AI, important skills for future workers.
- How to impact a "connected" world for Christ.

Technology and the Church

Tim Turner, Founder and CEO of Subsplash, has consulted software projects for XBOX, Expedia, Samsung, Cisco, T-Mobile and other fortune 500 companies. He's received patents for his work on touchscreen software and renewable energy. His projects have been featured in the Wall Street Journal, Engadget, Gizmodo, and Wired.

Transhumanism and AI

Dr. Jacob Shatzer graduated from Union University in 2007 and has served at Union since 2017. Prior to coming to Union, Jacob taught on the faculties of Sterling College and Palm Beach Atlantic University. He earned his master's in divinity from Southern Baptist Theological Seminary as well as his doctorate degree from Marquette University. He is the author of the book Transhumanism and the Image of God. Jacob is an ordained Southern Baptist minister and is an assistant editor for Ethics & Medicine and a consultant for BibleMesh Institute.
