

Biblical Worldview Institute 2019

WHAT IS BIBLICAL JUSTICE?

The foundation for what is justice and why it's important to Christians

Dr. Jarrett Stephens serves as the Teaching Pastor at Prestonwood and is the author of The Mountains are Calling. Dr. Stephens will lay the biblical foundation for the conference that justice is the very heartbeat of God who advocates for the afflicted and calls his children to "do justice" (Micah 6:8).

DISMANTLING RACISM: A TWO-FOLD PROBLEM

The difference between individual and institutional racism

Dr. Danny Akin, president of Southeastern Seminary, and Dr. Walter Strickland, Associate Vice President for Diversity and Assistant Professor of Systematic and Contextual Theology at Southeastern Seminary, will be sharing from their personal experiences about the difference between personal and systematic racism to help students understand that both must be addressed.

CHRISTIANS CONFRONTING RACIAL DISHARMONY

Biblical insights into God's heart for ethnic harmony

Church planter and pastor DA Horton will share his insight into how Christians can engage racial disharmony to restore the "fabric" of our culture. "FABRIC" is an acronym for Family Blight, Religious Institutions of Learning, and Culture.

WHITE AWAKE

A personal journey of cultural awareness

Author and pastor Dr. Daniel Hill will share his personal revelation about racial injustice and disharmony from his book White Awake.

ABORTION

Truth about the battle for human dignity and life

Inspirational speaker Ryan Bomberger with The Radiance Foundation will challenge students to think in a new light about the issues of life, specifically addressing the issue of abortion in our culture.

SEX TRAFFICKING

A discussion about the reality of domestic child sex trafficking and how to defend ourselves against evil by standing on the absolute truth of God

Jaco Booyens serves in many areas across multiple industries. He is the president and CEO of the film company, After Eden Pictures. He is the founder of SHAREtogether, a non-profit organization fighting against the global crisis of Sex Trafficking. Jaco directed and produced the feature film, 8 Days, written by his wife Philipa A. Booyens, to raise awareness about the reality of sex trafficking in the United States.

CRIMINAL JUSTICE REFORM

Christian worldview applied to crime and incarceration

Heather Rice-Minus serves as vice president of government affairs and church mobilization at Prison Fellowship, the nation's largest Christian nonprofit serving prisoners, former prisoners, and their families. She is a powerful, knowledgeable voice articulating the case for restorative criminal justice solutions.

NOW WHAT?

Help to distinguish between the world's concept of "social justice" and the Biblical narrative of justice

Allie Stuckey is the host of the podcast, "Relatable," where she breaks down the latest in culture, news and politics from a Christian perspective. In addition to podcasting, writing, and making the occasional satirical video, Allie speaks to colleges and organizations across the country.
